Staying Connected Improves Mental Health

Socialization plays a part in improving a person's mental health and well being. Here are three tips on how you, your family and friends can stay connected during a time of social distancing:

- Connect Digitally – Whether it is family gatherings, book clubs, gym workouts or some other replacement for in-person social activity. Try video conferencing platforms so no one feels left out.
- Make a Phone Call – Make a contact list of people to call and check in with daily or every few days. Start with those in your close circle of friends and then move outward.
- Have a Neighborhood Block Party – Driveways, yards, and sidewalks make it easy to stay six feet apart while allowing neighbors to get outside and connect.

Staying connected matters more now than it ever has before. We are proud to provide the services that keep you connected!

Progress Update Fiber to the Home

Our Fiber to the Home construction continues to make progress. As of today, over 1,800 of our Hamilton customers have been converted to fiber! This includes the community of Hampton and a majority of the Aurora area.

procedures to get work done. We plan to have fiber teams start work in the Amick Acres area of Doniphan during the upcoming weeks. We also will begin burying the fiber duct in the town of Hordville in an effort to stay on schedule.

Overall we are pleased with the progress of our fiber to the home project.

As always, we continue to work hard in providing our local exchange customers with the best fiber service available!
